GardenGOAT is an Austin-based design-build firm specializing in high-end outdoor living transformations. They guide homeowners through a structured process from consultation and 2D/3D renderings to build completion, ensuring clarity, collaboration, and professionalism at every step. Their services include landscape design, hardscaping, woodwork, grading, drainage, and irrigation, all tailored to reflect the homeowner's vision, lifestyle, and property needs. Founder Nicolas Zumino brings a hands-on approach and strong commitment to quality, turning outdoor spaces into beautiful and functional retreats. Website: <https://gardengoat.com/> Phone Number:
